UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)	No. CR 09 - 01195 JF

)	[PROPOSED] ORDER
v.)

RODNEY HATFIELD, et al.,)

Defendants.)

WHEREAS, the government has produced in excess of 30,000 pages of discovery to counsel for the defendants, and where the discovery includes financial records, trading records, and emails, such that the matter is considered complex under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(B)(ii);

WHEREAS, counsel for the defendants need sufficient time to review the discovery, in order to effectively prepare for the defense of this matter, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv);

WHEREAS, counsel for defendant Rodney Hatfield is currently preparing for and will shortly be representing another client in a criminal felony trial in California Superior Court, such that the need for a continuance based on continuity of defense counsel also exists, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv);

1 WHEREAS, counsel for the parties jointly agree and stipulate that a continuance of this
 2 matter is appropriate given the and the need for effective preparation of counsel and where the
 3 next available date where all counsel are available is February 17, 2011, such that there is a need
 4 for a continuance to such date based on continuity of counsel, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §
 5 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv);

6 THEREFORE, the parties mutually and jointly stipulate that the matter should be 7 continued, based on the complexity of this case, the need for effective preparation of counsel, and 8 the need for continuity of counsel, and the parties jointly request that the Court continue the 9 matter until Thursday, February 17, 2011, at 9:00 a.m.

10 The parties agree that continuing the case until February 17, 2011, is necessary, given the 11 complexity of the case, the need for defense counsel to review and analyze a large amount of 12 discovery, and the need to maintain continuity of counsel. The parties also agree that failing to 13 grant a continuance would deny counsel for the defense the reasonable time necessary for 14 effective preparation and continuity of counsel, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.
 15 See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).

16 The parties also agree, and the Court has found previously, that the case involves 17 government allegations of a complicated fraud scheme with substantial evidence, both paper and 18 electronic, and that thus “the case is so unusual or so complex, due to . . . the nature of the 19 prosecution, or the existence of novel questions of fact or law, that it is unreasonable to expect
 20 adequate preparation for pretrial proceedings or for the trial itself within the time limits
 21 established” by the Speedy Trial Act. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(7)(ii).

22 Finally, the parties agree that the ends of justice served by excluding time from January 6,
 23 2011, until February 17, 2011, outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a 24 speedy trial. Id. § 3161(h)(A).

ORDER

For good cause shown, the Court continues the matter until Thursday, February 17, July 28 2011, at 9:00 a.m.

June 16
The Court enters this order excluding time from ~~January 6,~~ 2011, up to and including
July 28
February 17, 2011. Specifically, the parties agree, and the Court finds and holds that such that time should be excluded until February 17, 2011, and furthermore that failing to grant a July 28
July 28
continuance until February 17, 2010, would unreasonably deny the defendant continuity of counsel, and also would deny defense counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(B)(iv).

The parties also agree, and the Court finds and holds, that the case involves government allegations of a complicated fraud scheme with substantial evidence, both paper and electronic, and that thus “the case is so unusual or so complex, due to . . . the nature of the prosecution, or the existence of novel questions of fact or law, that it is unreasonable to expect adequate preparation for pretrial proceedings or for the trial itself within the time limits established” by the Speedy Trial Act. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(B)(ii).
